

52nd Edition

2021-22 College Guide

Explore Over 80 Independent, Nonprofit
California Colleges and Universities

COLLEGE IS WORTH IT.

In fact, it has never been more worth it.

College graduates earn $1+ million more than high school graduates over the course of their careers.

The wage gap between college and high school graduates has never been greater. College graduates earn about $24,300 or 64% more per year.

Unemployment for college grads is significantly lower than for non-grads in both good and bad economic times.

And the benefits go beyond dollars and cents.

College grads are more likely to be “very satisfied” with their work. They are more likely to enjoy better health and not smoke; more likely to vote and know about issues facing our country; and more likely to volunteer and be involved in their communities.

OUR MISSION IS TO ADVOCATE FOR EXCELLENCE AND CHOICE IN HIGHER EDUCATION FOR ALL STUDENTS.

WHAT TYPES OF COLLEGES ARE THERE?

Public Colleges

Public colleges and universities are supported by public money, predominantly from the state government and taxpayers. In California, there are three public options: the California State University system, the University of California system, and the California Community Colleges.

Private Independent Colleges

Independent, nonprofit colleges receive no public money, and rely on tuition, fees, and private funding sources. Each has its own unique mission to serve students. There are over 80 independent institutions in California, all profiled in this guide.

For-Profit Colleges

For-profit colleges are profit-making business with owners and shareholders. Generally, they prepare students for specific careers.

WHY CHOOSE A PRIVATE/INDEPENDENT COLLEGE?

Personal Attention

That is what California’s independent colleges and universities are all about – small class sizes, high quality academics, opportunities for involvement and leadership in campus activities, and strong learning and living communities.

Generous Financial Aid

More than 70 percent of AICCU students receive financial assistance directly from the colleges and/or state and federal grants.

High Graduation Rates

California’s independent colleges have some of the states highest four-year graduation rates.

Success After Graduation

AICCU graduates enjoy high placement rates into career and graduate school. They continue to do well because their education has provided the liberal arts skills that employers cite as keys to success – critical thinking, problem solving, communication, teamwork, creativity, and the capacity for life-long learning.

This guide is provided by the Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities (AICCU). AICCU serves as the collective voice for California’s independent, nonprofit colleges and universities.

CAN I AFFORD A PRIVATE INDEPENDENT COLLEGE?

Do not take yourself out of the game by ruling out a particular college or university based solely on overall tuition. Unless you apply and find out what type of financial aid is available, you will never know if you could have attended your first-choice college.

Always file for financial aid & complete the FAFSA

The FAFSA is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, and you should apply even if you think you may not qualify for financial aid. It is required to be considered for almost every type of financial assistance.

Know the difference between “Net Price” & “Sticker Price.”

While the overall tuition, or “sticker price,” of an independent college is higher than that of a public institution, when all types of financial aid are factored in, the actual “out-of-pocket” expense of an independent college is often about the same or sometimes even less.

THE TRUTH ABOUT STUDENT DEBT

If you pay attention to the news, you are probably aware of the reports about students being “buried” in student debt. This is not the reality of student debt at private independent colleges in California.

The average amount of money borrowed for college by California students varies little by public or private (nonprofit) institution. Graduates of California colleges have an average student loan debt of $18,043. Plus, graduates of California independent colleges do best when it comes to repaying their student loans, having low default rates.

Graduating in Four Years is Important

Taking an extra year or two to complete a bachelor's degree could result in costing a student thousands of dollars in additional tuition and interest on loans, as well as missed income and retirement benefits.

KNOW THE TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID

Grants & Scholarships

“Gift aid” that does not need to be repaid.

Cal Grant

The state of California awards grants to California students based on financial need. These awards may be used at public or private colleges. For example, a first-year student at one of California's independent colleges may be eligible to receive up to a maximum of $9,084 in Cal Grant aid.

Federal Pell Grant

The federal government also awards aid based on family income. The maximum Pell grant is now $6,195 per year. In addition, students may qualify for Work-Study, meaning that they will be able to work on campus and be paid.

Institutional Aid

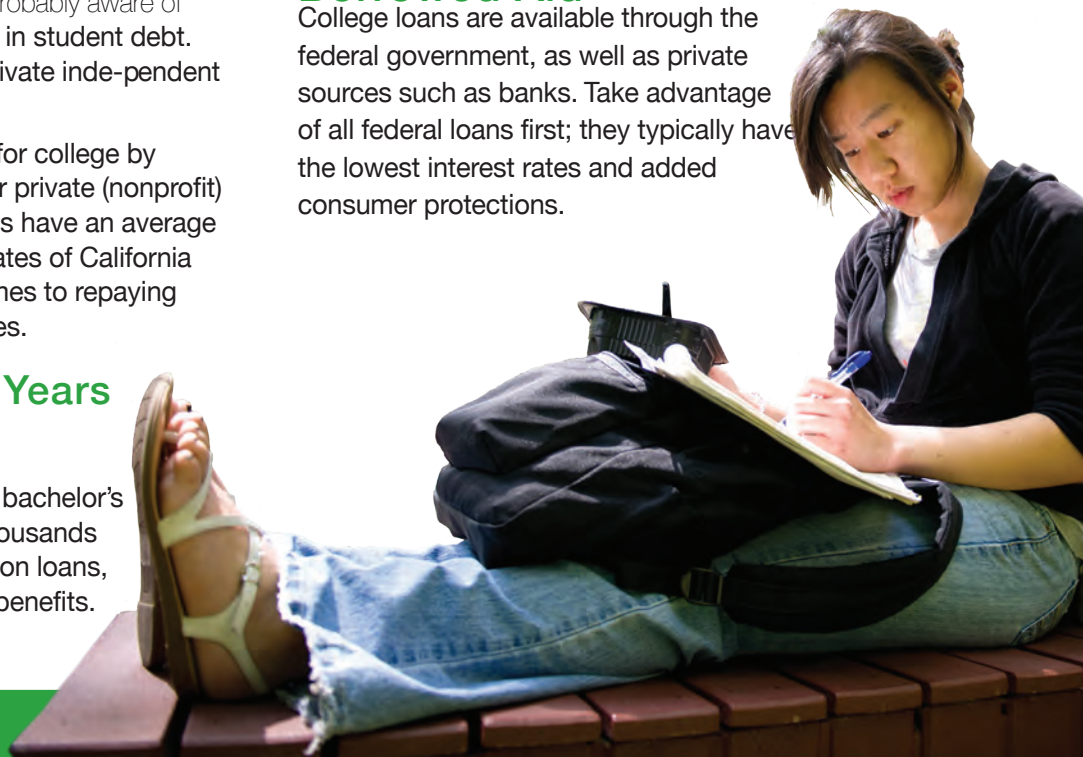

AICCU colleges regularly award student grants and/or scholarships based on financial need, as well as academic and other special abilities, such as in fine arts or athletics. The average institutional grant for Cal Grant students at California independent colleges is more than $23,275 per year.

Other Scholarships

Many outside scholarships are also available through community foundations, corporations, employers, or other organizations. Resources for locating these include: guidance counselors, community foundations, and websites such as College Board and FastWeb.

Borrowed Aid

College loans are available through the federal government, as well as private sources such as banks. Take advantage of all federal loans first; they typically have the lowest interest rates and added consumer protections.

TIME TO VISIT A COLLEGE

After reading through this guidebook and identifying which colleges you are most interested in, contact them to schedule a visit. There is no substitute for experiencing a college firsthand and discovering if it is the best fit for you.

Checklist: What to ask during your college visit.

- What academic programs on campus are most popular?
- What is the average financial aid package?
- Are there work study opportunities?
- How many students do internships?
- What career services are available on campus?
- Are any tutoring options offered?
- What student organizations are on campus?
- Are there opportunities to study abroad?
- What are the different dining and housing options?

Chapman's personalized education gives each student a unique opportunity to become an original thinker who rises to the world's challenges. We're here to make something: films, business models, lines of code—to bring them to life and deliver them to the world. Our inclusive, empowering community fosters creative thinking and expression of all perspectives. Chapman's campus is the perfect size—not too big, not too small—allowing for effective, innovative programs to be a focal point of our institution. We work to connect students to faculty and the community to keep students engaged in the larger world.

CLAREMONT
MCKENNA
COLLEGE

CLAREMONT MCKENNA COLLEGE

Claremont McKenna College (CMC), one of the nation's top liberal arts colleges, prepares students to make a difference. The college educates students for thoughtful and productive lives and roles of responsible leadership through its strong, real-world mission. Admission to the College is need-blind and emphasizes the demonstration of leadership accomplishments. The college attracts a student body that is broadly diverse and accomplished beyond the classroom. Located on a scenic, tree-lined residential campus 30 miles east of Los Angeles, CMC is a member of The Claremont Colleges, a seven-college consortium modeled after Oxford University. CMC students choose from more than 2,200 classes and participate in co-curricular activities with 7,000 other students at The Claremont Colleges. Students have the best of both worlds: the intimacy of a small residential college with small classes, a student-faculty ratio of nine to one, and the shared resources of a larger research university.

Pomona College

POMONA COLLEGE

Established in 1887, Pomona College is the founding member of The Claremont Colleges. Students can choose among 48 Pomona majors and over 2,600 courses across the 5-college consortium. Classes are small (15 students on average), and more than half of the student body engages in research with faculty. Our location near L.A. provides excellent opportunities for professional internships and cultural activities. One of a small number of institutions that practice need-blind admissions and meet 100% of students' financial need with no loans, Pomona is a highly diverse, close-knit community of students who are passionate about making a difference in the world.

PROVIDENCE
CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

PROVIDENCE CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

As the only remaining Reformed college on the West Coast, Providence Christian College provides an education based in a deep conviction to God’s word within a community of believers. Here, faith is an integral and essential component of the education—in every subject. We call it Faith Guided Learning™ because the Scriptures give purpose and freedom to learning. A Providence education does this with a rigorous emphasis on both experiential and classroom learning, in a small college environment, paired with immersion experiences in the arts, sciences, and culture of Los Angeles through our flagship Avodah Experiential Learning program.

SAN FRANCISCO CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The San Francisco Conservatory of Music (SFCM) offers a complete education in music that amounts to much more than a music degree. With an enrollment of only 450, SFCM is a tight-knit community that celebrates creativity, collaboration, and the highest standards of artistry. As the only collegiate conservatory in the Bay Area, SFCM students work alongside internationally-known artists appearing on San Francisco's major stages and have the opportunity to gig all around the area from Napa Valley to Silicon Valley. SFCM alumni hold leading roles as performers, educators, founders of ensembles and festivals, and innovators in business. Recent graduates have won positions with acclaimed orchestras such as the Atlanta Opera Orchestra, Dallas Symphony Orchestra, and San Francisco Ballet Orchestra, and in major sound recording organizations such as Sony PlayStation and sE Electronics.

THE SANTA BARBARA & VENTURA COLLEGES OF LAW

In 1969, The Santa Barbara & Ventura Colleges of Law became innovators by making quality legal education more accessible to anyone who possessed the passion, bravery, and intellectual rigor to pursue a legal degree—regardless of social standing or professional background. Today, our courses are delivered online (M.L.S. program) at night (J.D. program) or through a blended format (Hybrid J.D. program), making quality legal education accessible for modern students—those with hectic work schedules, families and other commitments. Our accommodating professors and staff work hard to provide the support and resources students need to have a successful and rewarding law school experience.

THOMAS AQUINAS COLLEGE

Thomas Aquinas College is unique among American colleges and universities. In place of textbooks, students study the Great Books of Western civilization — the works that have shaped the course of history and guided the development of the major disciplines (mathematics, science, language, literature, philosophy, and theology). Seeking truth, our students engage in this four-year pursuit, attempting to answer the enduring questions raised by the authors of these great works, not in vast lecture halls, but in vigorous classroom discussions of 15-18 students. The works studied are arranged so as to build upon one another, forming a comprehensive and integrated whole.

UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO

The University of San Diego (USD) sets the standard for an engaged, contemporary Catholic university, where innovative change makers confront humanity’s urgent challenges. USD’s values are reflected in the University’s rich Catholic intellectual tradition as well as its commitment to the liberal arts, which together ensure that its community of scholars are educated wholly — intellectually, physically, spiritually, emotionally, socially, and culturally. USD provides a character-building education that fosters independent thought, innovation, integrity, analytical thinking, and an open-minded, collaborative world view. The university welcomes and respects those whose lives are formed by different traditions, recognizing the importance of varying perspectives in contributing to a pluralistic society and fostering an atmosphere of open discussion and discovery.

ZAYTUNA COLLEGE

In 2009, Zaytuna College was founded in Berkeley, California, with a mission that called for grounding students in the Islamic scholarly tradition as well as in the cultural currents and critical ideas shaping modern society. In March 2015, Zaytuna earned accreditation from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, becoming the first accredited Muslim college in the United States. We seek students who demonstrate intelligence, diligence, and perseverance, who have a track record of service and volunteer work, are energized by long hours of study, and desire to develop their character as they develop their intellect. Acquiring tools for accessing great books, in English and Arabic, that contain timeless truths is a way of life at Zaytuna College. We follow a need-blind admissions process and do our best to ensure our students complete their education debt-free.
